VOL. I · NO. 1 SATURDAY, 17 OCTOBER 2026 PREPARED FOR HELLO

The Morning Paper

YOUR FRONT PAGE TODAY: BUSINESS, CRICKET, AI & TECH · 14 STORIES FROM 6 SOURCES · ABOUT 15 MIN

Good morning. We led with Cricket because it scored highest against how you actually read, not just the topics you picked on day one.

CRICKET · LEAD STORY

Pakistan squad announced for England Test series

Sample Times · 5h ago · 1 min · also reported by Sample Wire

Pakistan have picked a 15-man group for the home Test series. Two newcomers are in the squad while a senior bowler misses out.

Why this is on your front page: You follow Cricket (interest 70%). Also covered by several outlets today.

→ Read the full story: example.com

THREE THINGS TO KNOW TODAY

1. Pakistan squad announced for England Test series
   Pakistan have picked a 15-man group for the home Test series.
2. Anthropic proposes law regulating AI to US lawmakers
   Anthropic, the creator of the AI assistant Claude, confirmed on Friday it is circulating a draft bill among US lawmakers aimed at regulating artificial intelligence to address the lack of federal legislation on the risks posed by the new technology.

INSIDE TODAY

Business	5
Cricket	2
Beyond Your Bubble	2
In brief	1

CRICKET

Bumrah, Pant in India squad for New Zealand Test series

Bumrah is not part of the ODI squad, but will return to lead the attack in the two-match Test series

ESPNcricinfo · 1 min

→ cricinfo.com

CRICKET

US tech enterpreneur Govil eyes purchase of BBL team

Renegades and Hurricanes are among the teams that interest Govil, who already owns or co-owns teams in MLC and the Hundred

ESPNcricinfo · 1 min

→ cricinfo.com

BUSINESS

Anthropic proposes law regulating AI to US lawmakers

Anthropic, the creator of the AI assistant Claude, confirmed on Friday it is circulating a draft bill among US lawmakers aimed at regulating artificial intelligence to address the lack of federal legislation on the risks posed by the new technology.

Dawn · 3 min

→ dawn.com

BUSINESS

BUSINESS

Chip maker Nvidia shares climb as AI demand stays strong

Shares rose after the company said demand for AI chips remains high. Investors are watching supply limits closely.

Sample Times · 1 min

→ example.com

BUSINESS

State Bank holds interest rate steady as inflation eases

The central bank kept its policy interest rate unchanged. Officials said inflation is cooling but risks remain.

Sample Times · 1 min

→ example.com

BUSINESS

Pakistani startup raises seed funding for farm logistics

A young company building cold-chain logistics for farmers has closed a seed funding round. It plans to expand to three new regions.

Sample Tech · 1 min

→ example.com

BUSINESS

Pakistan showcases 20 tech firms at TechCrunch Disrupt 2026

https://www.dawn.com/news/2037726

Dawn · 1 min

→ dawn.com

BUSINESS

Leaders gather for summit on sanctions and trade

Heads of government met to discuss sanctions policy and trade rules. A joint statement is expected on the final day.

Sample Daily · 1 min

→ example.com

CRICKET

CRICKET

Jayawardene steps down as Mumbai Indians head coach

"Mumbai Indians has been a very special part of my journey for over a decade now," Jayawardene said

ESPNcricinfo · 1 min

→ cricinfo.com

CRICKET

Babar Azam returns to form with a century in domestic final

The batter played a patient innings to lift his side to a comfortable win. Coaches said the knock should ease selection worries.

Sample Daily · 1 min

→ example.com

BEYOND YOUR BUBBLE something different, picked to widen your view

WORLD NEWS · NEW FOR YOU

Ceasefire talks resume as United Nations urges aid access

Negotiators returned to the table as the United Nations pressed for safe aid routes. Officials described the talks as difficult.

Sample Wire · 1 min

→ example.com

FINANCE & MARKETS · NEW FOR YOU

Stocks close higher as KSE-100 extends rally

The benchmark index rose for a third straight session. Banks and energy firms led the gains.

Sample Daily · 1 min

→ example.com

IN BRIEF

Roadmap set to boost trade with Malaysia Dawn

* * * End of today's paper * * *

Edition 1 for hello, generated 2026-10-17T08:27:40 UTC. Headlines and short summaries link to the original publishers; read the full stories at the sources.